Pope Benedict speaks to Young People

WYD 2008 Sydney

‘You shall be my witnesses to the ends of the earth’ (Acts 1:9)

Dear friends, life is not governed by chance; it is not random. Your very existence has been willed by God, blessed and given a purpose.

‘You have become a new creation’.
(Rite of Baptism 99)

Life is a search for the true, the good and the beautiful...it is in this that we find happiness and joy.

Christ offers more! Indeed, He offers everything!

Our hearts and minds are yearning for a vision of life where love endures, where gifts are shared, where unity is built, where freedom finds meaning in truth, and where identity is found in respectful communion. This is the work of the Holy Spirit!

Dear young friends, the Lord is asking you to be prophets of this new age, messengers of his love, drawing people to the Father and building a future of hope for all humanity.

The Church especially needs the gifts of young people, all young people.

Open your hearts to the power of the Spirit.

World Youth Day has proven to be an amazing, even life changing, experience for those who have already taken part.

It is an experience of

- ⇒ Community
- ⇒ Prayer
- ⇒ Liturgy
- ⇒ Catechesis
- ⇒ Different cultures sharing Catholic faith and life

It is a wonderful encounter with Christ and the Universal Church on a truly global level

Jornada Mundial de la Juventud 2011 en Madrid

Who is this for?

You must be aged between 16 and 35 years on 5th August 2011

Whoever you are, if you are a young adult, this is for

YOU!

Whether you have attended World Youth Day before or not, please accept our invitation to join us in Madrid in 2011 and witness the Holy Spirit at work in our world today.
